

The Carl L. Becker House welcomes

Carter McAdams

Visiting November 11-12, 2006

Carter McAdams has co-directed Partners: Martynuk/McAdams Dance, a modern dance company, for over a decade (in NYC, then Hartford, and now Ohio).

Besides choreographing and performing, Mr. McAdams has created background projections of manipulated video images mixed with computer animation for three of Ms. Martynuk's major dances. He got his masters' degree from NYU in 1989, with an emphasis in Dance and Technology.

Mr. McAdams was a member of the Nikolais Dance Theater, touring internationally, from 1978-82, and before that he danced with Elizabeth Keen and Beverly Brown in NYC. He first danced with the Fairmount Dance Theater in Cleveland in 1973.
