

Guest in Residence

Artist Robert Birmelin

September 10 to 12, 2008

Robert Birmelin was born in Newark, New Jersey in 1933. After finishing his studies at Cooper Union, Yale and The Slade School of Art at the University of London, he settled in New York in 1960. His career since that date has been remarkable. He has worked with a quiet steadiness, growing and evolving, both as a painter and in public recognition.

Birmelin's talent seems to have been recognized almost from the beginning. Over the years he has had fifty one-man shows including thirteen at institutional museums and galleries. In addition there have been shows in Buenos Aires, California, Connecticut, Florida, Chicago, Maryland, New Mexico and Washington, D.C..

Birmelin's work is included in 37 Public Collections, including; The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Fine Art, the Brooklyn Museum, the Hirshorn Museum and the Museum of Modern Art.

