Wednesday, November 1

House Dinner: Chicken Francaise & Eggplant Parm
Chicken Francaise, eggplant parmesan, broiled fish, roasted root vegetables, Lyonnaise potatoes, soup, salads and desserts.
Dining Room, 6:00pm

Becker Café: *I Am Not Your Negro

“A radical, up-to-the-minute examination of race in America”
rottentomatoes.com
Everyone is Welcome
House Professor Neema’s Apt (G50), 7:00pm

Thursday, November 2

Crochet Night
Meet at the alcove in front of rm 508, 9:00pm

Friday, November 3

Cupcake for a Cure: Cupcake Decorating
Join Team Becker!
Help us bake cupcakes for the Cupcake for a Cure Bake-Off being held on Saturday at Willard Straight Hall.
2nd floor, north wing breezeway, 8:00pm

Saturday, November 4

CUBS Daffodils Planting
Get your hands dirty and take your mind off your studies as we plant 600 daffodil bulbs!
Meet at the House Office at 10:00am, or look for us on the grounds around Becker anytime between 10:00am and 2:00pm.

Sunday, November 5

Walk with the Chief!
House Fellow Kathy Zoner, Cornell Chief of Police, and GRF Seth will go for hike along the nearby gorge up to Beebe Lake.
Everyone is welcome to join! Meet at House Office, 2:00pm

Tuesday, October 31

“America and the Middle East - Questions & Reflections”
Dinner discussion with Guest-in-Residence, Ambassador Gerald Feierstein
Ambassador (retired) Feierstein is the director for Gulf affairs and government relations at the Middle East Institute.
Kramnick Seminar Room, 6:30pm

Monday, October 30

Spanish Language Dinner Table
Practice speaking Spanish in a friendly environment over dinner.
Common Room, 6:15pm

Sunday, October 29

House Council
Kramnick Seminar Room, 8:00pm

Saturday, October 28

Movie Night: The Ring!
A journalist must investigate a mysterious videotape which seems to cause the death of anyone in a week of viewing it.
Come by and enjoy Halloween with us!
TV Room, 9:00pm

Friday, October 27

First Year Parent Weekend - Tours of Becker
Family members of freshmen are invited to tour Becker House and enjoy a meal in the Becker dining room.
1:00 to 4:00pm

Thursday, October 26

CUP Sleep!
Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker

Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker

Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker

Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker

Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker

Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker

Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker

Former Ambassador Gerald Feierstein, Director for Gulf Affairs and Government Relations at the Middle East Institute
Feierstein retired from the U.S. Foreign Service in May 2016 after a 41-year career with the personal rank of Career Minister. As a diplomat he served in nine overseas postings, including three tours of duty in Pakistan, as well as assignments in Saudi Arabia, Oman, Lebanon, Jerusalem, and Tunisia. In 2010, President Obama appointed Amb. Feierstein U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, where he served until 2013. From 2013 until his retirement, Amb. Feierstein was Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near Eastern Affairs.

Reichert Guest Suite, 108 Becker